

Hermann Mattanovich

Chief Technology Officer
Frequentis AG

---

Personal details	Hermann Mattanovich was born in Carinthia, Austria, in 1960. He is married and has three daughters. His hobbies are his family and relaxing in the garden.
Education	Hermann Mattanovich studied electrical engineering at Vienna University of Technology. He graduated in 1985.
Career	Hermann Mattanovich started his career as a technical consultant for companies such as Philips, Elin, VOEST, and Frequentis. He also lectured at Vienna University of Technology. In 1988, he co-founded PDTS, a software development company headquartered in Vienna. From the beginning, there was a continuous and successful collaboration with Frequentis, which subsequently acquired all shares in PDTS.
Frequentis	Between 1999 and 2004, Hermann Mattanovich was responsible for the TETRA development portfolio at Frequentis. In 2005, the TETRA activities were placed in a separate company. As CEO of this company, Mr. Mattanovich built up enormous knowledge of solutions for the private mobile communications market. In January 2009, he was appointed to the Executive Board of Frequentis AG with responsibility for technology. His responsibilities cover research and development and the Frequentis Group's technology activities. He also contributes his expertise to major Frequentis projects which involve is high demand for innovative technological solutions.

“ I endeavour to continuously drive forward Frequentis' two most important strengths: technical expertise and innovation. ”