

Peter Skerlan

Chief Financial Officer
Frequentis AG

Personal details	Peter Skerlan was born in 1968 and lives in Lower Austria. He is married and has two children. His private interests are his family, travelling, hiking, and culture.
Education	Peter Skerlan studied corporate management at Vienna University of Applied Sciences while working. He graduated in 2000. He also studied business administration and accounting at the University of London.
Career	Peter Skerlan started his career in 1989. Shortly afterwards he entered the world of IT as head of hardware and major projects at a Viennese company. In addition to being a product specialist for Windows NT, Excel, and Word, he worked as a Visual Basic trainer and programmer for enterprise application software
Frequentis	Peter Skerlan joined Frequentis in 1999. Initially, he worked in Controlling, where he was responsible for areas such as Product Management, Development, TETRA, Corporate Research and Public Safety as well as the US subsidiary. In 2003, Peter Skerlan became head of regional and consolidated bookkeeping and cost accounting. From 2006, Peter Skerlan was Vice President Finance with overall responsibility for financial performance and processes in the Frequentis Group and from 2016 to 2017, he was Director of Finance at Comsoft Solutions GmbH in Karlsruhe, Germany, where he was responsible for the successful commercial integration of the company into the Frequentis Group. In 2018/2019, he was a member of the core team for Frequentis' IPO. As CFO of Frequentis from 16 April 2021, Peter Skerlan's responsibilities include all Finance departments, Human Resources, and a range of other central services such as IT, Legal and ESG (Environmental, Social, Governance).

“ Together with our motivated staff, I want to continue to drive forward the growth and globalisation of the Group on a sound financial basis. ”